Piano

I went in-to a Can-dy shop dear and I searched it all through
One lit-tle word will make life sweet-er in the sweet bye and bye

p

I could-n't find a sin-gle sweet thing that was sweet e-nough for you.
The sweet-est word I know is "Yes" dear you can speak it if you try.

And then I thought of some-thing sweet-er just as sweet as can be You'll make the sweet-est dream come true dear for where ev-er you roam

The lit-tle church a-round the cor-ner just the Par-son you and me.
You'll find a world of sweet-hearts dream-ing just a dream of home sweet home.

EDW. HOUSE

Chorus

What could be sweet - er — than a hon-ey moon with you — What could be sweet - er —

— than a bung-a-low for two — With church bells ring-ing — and love birds sing-ing — Two arms are cling-ing a-round you dear glad that they found you dear Just true to you what could be sweet - er —

— Than the hon-ey from your lips — in hon - ey - land I'll steal some sips — of hon-ey drips — Red Ramb-ler ros - es all ov - er the ground — May - be we'll have some-thing else ramb-ling 'round — What could be sweet-er than that — What could be
